The House at Pooh Corner: a summer of fun at Mottisfont!

This summer, explore the wonderful world of a boy and his bear, when Christopher Robin, Winnie the Pooh and the Hundred Acre Wood are celebrated at Mottisfont.

At the heart of this unique summer of fun is an opportunity to enjoy 38 hand-painted illustrations by E.H. Shepard, created for the books Winnie the Pooh and The House at Pooh Corner. Some of these works have never been seen before, and none of them has ever been on show in the UK. Each artwork is instantly recognisable, featuring Pooh, Piglet, Eeyore and Tigger, amongst other characters beloved by generations of children and adults, all based on the nursery toys that belonged to author AA Milne's son, Christopher Robin.

Children can experience Pooh-inspired forest escapades for themselves, when they embark on Winnie the Pooh's Great Expedition at Mottisfont - an exciting family quest trail packed with nature-led tasks and creative fun. The trail will see families racing Poohsticks along the River Test, tree climbing and tracking a Woozle, building a house of sticks just like Eeyore's, designing a trap for any unexpected Heffalumps, and in true Pooh style making up songs and creating stories. Along the way, kids will be able to tick off plenty of the National Trust's "50 Things to do before you're 11¾" challenges too.

Organised activity weekends on 24 & 25 August, and 31 August & 1 September, offer plenty of additional Winnie the Pooh-related fun, including building a Pooh stick boat, making a huge daisy chain, and building a kite that always flies!

You and your family can prepare for your "expedition" trail by downloading an Expedition Passport Form. Kids draw pictures of themselves and their toys, and tell us about their dream "expedition", and either bring in their form or email it back to us. We'll choose the most interesting pictures and descriptions in two age categories; there are 10 prizes of lovely books kindly donated by Egmont UK Ltd, and free tickets to Mottisfont. The competition runs until 31 August, and the whole Winnie-the-Pooh offer is on until 16 September.

So, have a look at these two bits of the website to whet your appetite....

Our Families page:

<http://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/mottisfont/things-to-see-and-do/for-families/> and the competition page:

<http://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/mottisfont/things-to-see-and-do/article-1355786853650/> and we'll hope to see you here very soon for some Winnie-the-Pooh fun!

Outdoor theatre and other events

Don't miss Pantaloons' production of Sherlock Holmes on 1st August, and Illyria's tale of the sheep-pig Babe on 24 August (tickets for each: adults £16, children £8, booking essential on 0844 249 1895).

For more outdoor fun, come on our Wild Bug Hunt on 24 July, a Countryside Bike Ride on 20 August, or our Picnic and Pedal at Foxbury in the New Forest on 25 August. Or try something a bit different in September with the Vegetable Orchestra on 21 and 22 September – learn how to make a musical instrument from a vegetable (yes, really!) and then play it at the end of the session in a unique band!

It's going to be a glorious summer – hope we'll see you at Mottisfont soon!

River Open Day:An Exclusive Invitation to Local Residents

Art on show in the Wallops

Book Saturday 28th and Sunday 29th September now for a visit to Wallops Parish Hall (A343, opposite the George pub), for the annual show by Wallop Artists. This long established group contains some very talented artists, several of whom have become big names locally and in national art societies. This is an excellent chance to snap up some high quality artworks.

Expression in Black, by Jo Richardson

The exhibition is mainly of paintings, but there are usually prints and drawings, as well as small sculptures and craft items. On display are well framed pieces, but there are unframed pieces at very reasonable prices.

There are refreshments available throughout the show, from 10am to 5pm each day. Some of the artists are also excellent cake-makers.

Wallop Artists have regular monthly demonstrations by professional artists; they hold day workshops, and in the summer have sessions painting outdoors. There is a weekly painting and drawing group, and occasional short courses. New members who want to develop their practice are welcome.

has recently started some independent walking. He has daily physio, and with determination on his part we believe his future is now very positive.

Margaret Astur

Dear Friends,

I am writing this letter quite early in July ready for the double issue of the ACORN which takes us through to September. As I write this letter the day has been gloriously sunny and hot and it's a warm Sunday evening,

The main reason for writing this month is to let you know about the St. Andrew's Harvest Festival, which will take place on the 8th September at 11am. Here we have an opportunity of saying thank you to God for the abundance of the harvest, the beauty of nature and the incredible miracle that exhibits itself through the very fact that we are alive as part of the wonder of the creation. It is also an opportunity of remembering those less fortunate than ourselves and as always any produce brought to church will be given to local homeless charities.

This year we hope the village will also support our Gift Day for St. Andrew's where, as part of the Harvest Thanksgiving, we would like to give thanks to God for our beautiful and ancient parish church with its incredible 850 plus years of history. We thank God also for the ministry of worship and pastoral care which takes place on a weekly basis. For all of this to continue we have to have sufficient funds, and we hope that you we will feel able to bring a gift in an envelope as an offering for the work of St. Andrew's in Mottisfont. But please come whether you bring a gift or not, as our main purpose is to welcome you into St. Andrew's and to worship God and offer fellowship.

After the service at 11am we will be enjoying some special refreshments together.

Please do put this in your diary.

With Blessings

Ron Corne.

KIMBRIDGE RESTAURANT

Peach Melba Roulade

This recipe serves 10 people

Ingredients

3 large eggs
85g caster sugar
85g self-raising flour

Filling:

1 teaspoon of vanilla extract
420g peaches, roughly chopped
75g raspberry puree
150g raspberries
200ml double cream

How to make it

Heat the oven to 200C/gas 6/fan 180C. Butter and line a 25 x 35cm Swiss roll tin with baking parchment.

In a large bowl whisk together the eggs and the sugar using an electric mixer until light and fluffy - about 5 minutes. Sieve the flour into a clean bowl and gently fold the flour into the egg mix. Fold in until all combined, but be careful not to over-mix and knock the air out of the eggs. Pour the mix into the lined tin. smooth out to the edges and bake for 12-15 minutes until thoroughly cooked.

Lay a sheet of baking paper slightly larger than the sponge on a surface and dust with sieved icing sugar. Flip the sponge out onto the paper and carefully peel off the parchment lining on the sponge. Cut a line into the sponge one end about 2cm from the edge, being careful not to cut all the way through (this will help when filling the sponge). Using the sheet underneath the sponge, tightly roll the sponge up starting with the cut edge rolling the paper in the sponge. Once rolled, leave to cool completely.

For the filling, whisk the cream and vanilla until it forms soft peaks. Fold in half of the chopped peaches and drizzle in half of the raspberry puree. Unroll the sponge and spread over the cream; scatter with the raspberries and remaining peach pieces. Drizzle the remaining puree over the cream and starting with the edge you cut earlier, fold that over into the cream. Then tightly roll the roulade, transfer to a serving plate, dust with sugar and serve.
