Michelin Star for Kimbridge Restaurant?

Your editors recently had a rather late lunch at the Kimbridge Restaurant. That is, we started late, instead of just ending late as is our usual practice. This meant that as we sat down, the place was nearly empty, so we were intrigued to glimpse a rather peculiarly attired gentleman sitting at a table by himself, tucked away around the corner from the main dining area.

He appeared to be wearing a some kind of inflated white ski suit, and was making copious notes in a small notebook.

This was such an unusual sight that it took us a minute or two to realise that of course, he had to be from the Michelin Guide!

So when the star is awarded, remember this: you read it first in the April edition of the Acorn!

National Trust

This is my final piece for The Acorn, as I'm moving to another role within the National Trust, as Project Director for the Clandon restoration project. You might remember how in April last year, a tragic fire caused a lot of damage to this beautiful Palladian Mansion, home of the Onslow family for many years. The restoration will be the largest restoration project undertaken by the National Trust in a generation and whilst I'm looking forward to the new role, I'm very sad to be leaving Mottisfont after 3 years. Louise Govier, who has worked here for many years, will be taking over as Acting General Manager for 6 months, whilst the Trust recruits a permanent replacement.

Mottisfont and Dunbridge is a wonderful, vibrant parish, with so much going on. Many, many people contribute so much, whether that's on the Parish Council, for the church, the numerous local community groups or by supporting the various activities that people who live here value so much. It's been fabulous to be part of and contribute to in some small way.

Our plans for the medium-term future include:

- Restoration of the milking parlour by the roadside, which has been without a roof for some time
- A new BioMass system to heat the house with wood sourced locally. This will reduce Co2 emissions, saving about 90 tonnes annually
- Further work to restore the farm yard in order to make it look better and work more efficiently as a working space
- Replacement of the Mottisfont Lane fence
- Woodland restoration

All of these projects are subject to the necessary consents and funding of course.

Finally, just a note to say that over Easter, the number of visitors to the property can be quite high, so we might need to use our overflow field along Oakley Road. If we do need to do this, we will make sure there are signposts to mark out the route and we do this early to reduce the traffic moving through the village centre. Please do be vigilant though, especially when crossing the road by the old Post Office, as there is likely to be more traffic at this time.

Many thanks for all your help and support.

Best wishes,

Paul Cook – General Manager

In the gallery...

Thelwell: Ponies and Places, on display until 10th April.

A major exhibition from the family archives of Norman Thelwell, whose popular cartoons of plump girls on ponies are joined by many other satires of twentieth-century life. Less familiar are Thelwell's beautiful paintings of local landscapes – he lived close to Mottisfont and captured the surrounding countryside in a series of stunning watercolours, many of which have never been exhibited before.

The exhibition has proved really popular, especially with local residents, so make sure you catch it before 10 April.

The Schlee Collection: Drawings from Henry Moore to David Hockney, 23 April – 3 July

An intriguing exhibition of rarely-seen works by some of Britain's most famous twentieth-century artists. On display will be over 40 drawings and sketches, alongside some of our own contemporary art collection.

This major private collection, on loan from Southampton City Art Gallery, features works by major artists including Henry Moore, Graham Sutherland, Stanley Spencer, Gillian Ayres and David Hockney. Enjoy portraits and landscapes, as well as observational drawings, abstract works and compositional sketches. Drawings for David Breuer-Weil's monumental sculpture Alien, recently installed in Mottisfont's north paddock, will also be on view.

For families...

Cadbury Easter Egg Hunt, 25 March - 10 April

Pick up an Easter hunt sheet, full of brain teasers and craft activities. Follow the trail to discover giant eggs hidden around our grounds, and complete challenges with your family to earn a delicious chocolate treat. £2 per trail. Normal property admission applies.

In the gardens...

We planted an extra 18,000 spring bulbs around the gardens this year, and many are now blooming, including hundreds of bright daffodils. There are lovely displays by the font, under the great plane and in the winter garden. Look out for the carpet of bright blue chionodoxa that sweeps through the lime tree avenue at this time of year – a telltale sign of spring at Mottisfont. You can take home some of your own from our new plant sales area by the shop, too.

The WI

17 members were present at the March meeting to listen to Susan Howe, who is a London Blue Badge Guide. In her talk entitled "Eccentric, Heroes and Tea" we were told about some characters in history and their various idiosyncrasies, and also about the history of tea and coffee.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, 12th April at 7.30 in Mottisfont Village Hall. The speaker will be talking about "Canals and Canal Paintings". Guests and visitors will be very welcome to attend and enjoy a cup of coffee and tea.

Excursions 2016

Last year's excursion programme was very successful: most trips went off with the bus full.

The Committee plans to run the following excursions during 2016, reflecting the discussions at the Annual General Meeting earlier this year:

| DATE     | DESTINATION   | DRIVER               |
|----------|---------------|----------------------|

| 15/6/16  | Isle of Wight | Michael Horne        |
| 20/7/16  | Weymouth      | Michael Hoskins      |
| 17/8/16  | Bournemouth   | David Reynolds       |
| 21/9/16  | Swanage       | Rodney Allsop-Seward |
| 19/10/16 | Windsor       | Peter Broome         |
| 16/11/16 | Street        | Michael Hoskins      |

You will be pleased to hear that we are able to hold the fares for the third year running. There will be no increase on last year's price of £14.00 per person per trip. As before, there will be a supplement to cover the ferry costs on the Isle of Wight trip.

Bookings can be made with Pam Dawkins on 301203. Please do not contact her before 9am on the first day of the month in which you wish to travel. It is important to note that bookings once made must be paid for. The start time is 9.30am from the Square. In the event of overbooking, we will try to ensure that you have priority for a subsequent trip.

Test Valley Villages Lecture

Wednesday, 20th April, 8pm
Broughton Village Hall

The lecture in April is entitled "Yes, no, or very possibly, Minister: case studies in how British Government works." The speaker will be Neil Kinghan CB.

Neil Kinghan was a civil servant between 1975 and 2007, ending his Whitehall career as Director General for Local and Regional Government in the Department of Communities. He subsequently acted as chief executive of the Equality and Human Rights Commission in 2009-10, and produced a parliamentary review of the Riot Damages Act in 2013.

Neil Kinghan will talk about the parts played by ministers, civil servants, and those who would influence them, in determining government policy. Is it all based on careful planning, or just reacting to events? Neil will offer four case studies based on issues in which he was involved during three decades: the Hillsborough disaster and football hooliganism in the 1980s; homelessness and rough sleeping in the early 90s; and two recent examples, equalities and human rights and the aftermath of the 2011 riots.

As usual, the cost is £3, including a drink, and all are welcome. No booking is needed.

Mottisfont Parish Passes

Dear Friends,

Can I take this opportunity of wishing you a happy and blessed Easter!

The new life began on Easter Sunday.

In the Lord's Prayer, we pray that "Thy Kingdom come, on earth as it is in Heaven." And Christ told His disciples that some of them would not die until they saw the Kingdom of God "coming in power" (Mark 9:1).

At last we have reached the culmination of our faith as Easter is the greatest feast in the Christian calendar.

The early Christian Fathers saw Easter as the fulfillment of that promise.

On Easter Sunday, Christians celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. Easter Sunday comes at the end of the 40 Lenten days of preparation.

With the resurrection of Christ, God's Kingdom is established on earth, in the form of the Church.

We have travelled through Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, (the day of Jesus' Crucifixion), so that we can rise again with Him in new life at Easter.

Because of the central importance of Easter to the Christian, it has been a great tradition that all Christians who have been confirmed receive Holy Communion sometime during the Easter Season which lasts through to 50 days after Easter.

Easter is a day of celebration because it represents the fulfillment of our faith as Christians.

May this time be very special for you.

St. Paul wrote that, unless Christ rose from the dead, our faith is in vain (1 Corinthians 15:17). Through his death, Christ saved humanity from bondage to sin, and He destroyed the hold that death has on all of us; but it is His Resurrection that gives us the promise of new life, both in this world and the next.

With Christian love,

Ron (Benefice Rector)

Open garden, cream tea and live music at The Orchards, Sunday, 8th May, 1-5pm

A year ago in May, I had a benign brain tumour removed and have had an amazing recovery. Many other local people have been affected by brain tumours too, so all money raised will be donated to the Brainstrust (registered charity: 1114634). It is a charity that really helped me on my journey.

We will be serving cream teas, be entertained by local musicians, have a raffle, a bouncy castle and other activities to keep children amused. Entrance will cost £1.50 for adults and £1 for children.

We are at 'The Orchards', at the Newtown end of Carters Clay Road (SO51 0GL). Parking will be available in the field, just past The Square, opposite the phone box and post box. We look forward to welcoming you!

Life without Microsoft

Did you know that there are free alternatives to Microsoft Windows and Microsoft Office that are reliable and easy to use? Most computer shops don't sell them because they're...free! There's no profit in that, so advertising is concentrated on products they can charge for. That's why most people have never heard of the alternatives.

The replacement for Microsoft Windows that I'm referring to is called Linux. There are many different variants of Linux, but a good one for people familiar with Microsoft Windows is called Ubuntu. The computer used to compose the Acorn runs Ubuntu, and uses a free desktop publishing application called Scribus. Ubuntu comes with LibreOffice, which has a wordprocessor (like Microsoft Word), a spreadsheet (like Excel) and a presentation program (like Powerpoint), and these are all broadly compatible with the corresponding Microsoft products. It also comes with email (Thunderbird) and a web browser (Firefox), so without any additions, it already has what most people need. Ubuntu also gives you access to thousands more applications, nearly all of which are free, and unlike apps on Android phones, are not funded by annoying advertising!

If you are concerned about the upgrade to Windows 10 giving Microsoft access to your information, one way round this is to migrate to Ubuntu. You can try Ubuntu without affecting your Windows installation by downloading it and putting it on a DVD or memory stick and running it from there. Then, if you like it, you can install it on your PC either in place of Windows, or along side Windows, allowing you to choose which to run when you start the PC. There is plenty of information online to help you with this, or if you run into any problems.

Finally, while not completely immune, Linux is far less prone to viruses than Windows. But whether you are running Windows or Linux, it's a good idea to be cautious about opening strange emails!

KIMBRIDGE RESTAURANT

Roast spring lamb with red currant and red wine jus

This recipe serves 6

Ingredients

2¼kg leg lamb, bone in
75ml olive oil
1 tablespoon chopped rosemary
2 large carrots, roughly chopped
1 white onion, roughly chopped
3 sticks celery, roughly chopped
Small sprigs of bay, thyme and rosemary
1 punnet redcurrants
1 tsp plain flour
½ bottle red wine
500ml lamb stock
1 tablespoon redcurrant jelly

Kate Buchan,
Sous Chef
at Kimbridge
Restaurant

How to make it

Pre heat the oven to 180°C, conventional 200°C, gas mark 6.

Criss-cross the top and sides of the lamb with a knife, making shallow incisions.

Mix half the olive oil with the rosemary, salt and pepper and set aside.

Place the roasting tin over a medium heat and warm the lamb fat with the remaining olive oil for a few seconds. Rub the rosemary oil over the top of the lamb and into the slashes. Keep turning the lamb over in the hot oil until it begins to colour all over.

Tip the vegetables and sprigs of herbs into the tin, sprinkle the lamb with a little extra salt and roast in the oven for 50 minutes or until the outside fat starts to brown. Remove the tin from the oven and turn the temperature down to fan 140°C, conventional 160°C, gas mark 4.

Scrape the vegetables away from the bottom of the tin and turn the lamb over. Baste with a little of the fat, then continue to roast for a further 45-50 minutes. Test by inserting a metal skewer into the thickest part of the leg: for medium-rare meat, the tip should feel warm to the touch and the juices that run out of the meat should be fairly pink.

Remove the lamb to a warmed serving dish and cover with a loose tent of foil. This will prevent heat escaping and will allow the lamb to relax while the gravy is made.

Remove the vegetables from the roasting tin (reserve any that aren't too dark for tucking round the roast), then put the tin on a medium heat and skim away all but 1 tbsp of the fat. Sprinkle the flour in and stir constantly.
