HAPPY ANNIVERSARY TO US!

It was ten years ago this month that we took over from Pat and Dave Frances as editors of the Acorn. We were astonished to realise that since then, we have produced just over 100 issues! Of course, this would not have been possible without lots of help from many other people, especially those who send in articles, and those who help by delivering copies in their neighbourhood. We also must not forget the organisations that cover our printing costs: Mottisfont Abbey, the Social Club, and Kimbridge Restaurant.

Special thanks go to Gordon Wood, who leads our distribution network. He folds about 165 copies every month (we make that about 32,000 sheets of A3 in the last ten years!), and delivers them to the other people in our distribution network.

You may know that we are ploughing our way through the forms that were returned from the survey for the Parish Plan (see page 5). This is going to take some time, but being at least averagely egotistical, we had to have a quick look at how the Acorn was rated, and were delighted to find it was given a high average score. But since our role is mainly to take what we have been sent and fit it on a page, most of the warm glow from that rating should be enjoyed by those who create and send us the content. These are the people who, by running activities and events, make a major contribution to the community.

The Acorn has been delivered on paper since it started, but we are planning to review how the Acorn should be distributed. We are aware that not everybody has access to the Internet, and that a printed publication is seen by many as more convenient than a set of web pages. We don't think it would be right to abandon them, so we intend to keep printing. However, if for example someone set up a village web site, it could allow us to reduce the number of printed copies, cutting costs and saving paper, but we must confess that we're not keen on making more work for ourselves by having to prepare both print and web versions.

If you have any ideas about how we could proceed, then we'd be delighted to hear from you!

Julia and Peter

National Trust

Hello!

As I write, the leaves are just starting to turn, and the Abbey is bathed in Autumnal sunlight – it's my favourite time of year.

We're slightly awash with scaffolding and temporary fencing at the moment, as we take advantage of this quieter period to do some maintenance and conservation work on our main buildings, including repainting the eaves of the stable block and decorating the east side of the house.

We're also progressing well with the trench work to lay pipes for our new BioMass boiler. It's been fascinating to see how the specialist groundwork team used a remote-controlled 'moling' machine, which burrows at a deep level using compressed air to create a tunnel just big enough for the pipe. It was deep enough to miss tree roots, and stopped at some buried masonry so that the tunnel could be diverted around it. The contractors found a few artefacts in the trench nearest to the house, which are with the Hampshire Archaeological Service being recorded. They included a 19th-century human leg bone, which the archaeologist said had been 'discarded' – I wonder if we'll find out how and why!

We've got our fingers crossed for our Countryside Team, who've been nominated for the National Wild Trout Trust Conservation Award, for their linked river conservation projects in the local area. On the Oakley Beat, they worked with Southampton University and a number of other partners to model and restore a section of the river bed, so that it now supports chalk stream flora and fauna.

On Stockbridge Marsh Court Stream, the team has restored eroded banks and vegetation while maintaining recreational access and encouraging traditional community grazing schemes. The nomination shows what a difference their work has made to the health of the waterways and the fish that thrive in them – we hope they win the award.

The rest of the Mottisfont team are getting ready for half term, and have a great Halloween trail planned. We've also started to trial some 'Little Adventurer' sessions aimed at families with under 5's, involving all sorts of outdoor fun and nature exploration. If you might be interested in taking part, call the estate office on 344001 to find out more.

Hope we'll see you soon,

Louise

The WI

'Sight Loss - a Clear & Present Danger' was the subject at this month's meeting, and the speaker was Julian Jackson. We were given a number of facts concerning sight loss and the problems that people in this situation have to overcome. There is considerable research being undertaken, and new treatments are being tested and implemented. It was a very interesting subject, and one that affects quite a large number of people, but as Julian said, 'we must look forward with hope that new treatments will become available'.

As reported last month, the stall that we had at the Mottisfont Village Fete was very successful, and as a result we are able to support four charities with donations. We will be sending a donation to the following charities: Romsey Good Neighbours, Romsey Young Carers, Piam Brown Children's Cancer Ward at Southampton General Hospital, and The Gift of Sight, which will be as a sponsorship for one of our members who is making a parachute jump on her 70th birthday - very brave!! Once again, thank you to everyone who supported us at the fete.

Our next meeting will be on Tuesday 8th November at 7.30pm in Mottisfont Village Hall, and the speaker will be Liz Barron, whose subject will be 'In Grandpa's Footsteps - Barry to Shanghai'. A warm welcome awaits guests, and a cup of tea or coffee, so why not join us?

Broughton's fantastic annual family firework event will once again take place on 5th November with a children's torch procession leaving The Square (by the Greyhound pub) at 6.30pm. The procession will then make its way to the sportsfield in Buckholt Road where the bonfire will be lit at around 6.45pm.

Tickets will be available on the gate and entry will be £6 for adults and £5 for concessions and children. This is a not-for-profit event, and all proceeds will be donated to worthy causes.

Test Villages Lectures Broughton Village Hall Wednesday, 16th November, 8pm

We are seizing the gloomy month by the horns, with our next fascinating lecture:

Death and the Victorians: Sarah Bernhardt's coffin and Prince Albert's shaving water

Speaker: Dr. Isobel Broome.

The Victorians were fascinated by death. Dr. Broome will describe and partly explain their attitudes towards death, dying, and the mourning process. She will explore the different outward manifestations of grief, experienced by the poor, the rich and aspiring middle classes, in ceremonies, cemeteries, clothes and coffins. The talk may offer the opportunity for us to consider our own attitudes to the "last taboo".

Dr. Isobel Broome has spent twenty years volunteering at hospices in the USA and the UK, working with patients, their families and administration. To complement her practical training and experience, Isobel followed university courses on the psychosocial aspects of palliative care. These led to her doctoral thesis, which presented the results of her research into the first home in England to offer comprehensive, compassionate care to those at the end of life. Founded in 1885, this home, The Friedenheim, introduced her to the rich, complex world of Victorian death, mourning and funerary practice, which has since remained a passion.

No booking is necessary, and all are welcome. Entry £4, to include a glass of wine or soft drink. Full time students are free of charge.

Someone Special in the Grotto!

Dear Friends,

Remember, remember! With these words the rhyme about Guy Fawkes usually springs to mind. But there is more to November than fireworks, colourful as they may be, for the whole of the month is full of occasions for remembering. We start with All Saints Day, when we commemorate those good people who throughout the ages have set us a godly example. This is quickly followed by All Souls Day when we have the opportunity to give thanks for those we have known and loved but who are no longer with us in this world. A special service takes place in Houghton church when we can light a candle in their memory and reflect on what they have meant to us in their lifetime.

And then we have a national time of remembrance when we stop at the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month (Armistice Day) for a prayerful silence. This year in particular we have commemorated some of the major battles of 1916 during the First World War such as the Somme when the loss of life was horrendous. We have much indeed to be thankful for.

And so, on the Sunday nearest Armistice Day, we come to church, the centre of village life, to offer those thanks to God, who alone understands our human ways - both our strengths and our weaknesses.

Our ability to remember is a priceless gift which we often take for granted. But the opposite of remembering is to forget. So may we never ever forget the sacrifices which have been made for us in the past - and continue to be made in many corners of our modern world, but often in hidden yet remarkable ways. For it is our hope that, one day, God's kingdom of love and peace, where wars shall be no more, will prevail throughout the world.

There is an ancient Chinese saying which offers this clearcut wisdom. It suggests that "when there is harmony in the home we might get order in the nation, which will lead us to peace in the world."

Is that a vision too good to be true? Not if we all play our part.

With blessings,

Gina

November Bossington Meditation

The third subject in our series devoted to people who lived close by is George Herbert, relative of the Earls of Pembroke, courtier, member of parliament, priest and poet.

He crammed so much into his short life that it doesn't seem possible for him to have written such a lot of beautiful poetry and hymns.

Do join us on 20th November at 6pm.

DEFIBRILLATORS

You might have heard rumours that Mottisfont and Dunbridge will soon be in receipt of two shiny new defibrillators. The village hall has received funding for these defibrillators from Scottish and Southern Electricity Community Resilience Fund, and the units and cases as well as emergency phones are being provided by the Community Heartbeat Trust.

A defibrillator (or AED, Automated External Defibrillator) is designed to be used on an individual who has had a sudden cardiac arrest, where their heart has stopped pumping blood due to an abnormal rhythm known as arrhythmia. It can happen to anyone regardless of age or fitness. The person will lose pulse, consciousness and ability to breathe, but there is a short window of time where a defibrillator device can bring them back to life.

The defibrillator unit delivers an electrical current through a person's chest, which aims to shock the heart back to a normal rhythm in order for it to pump again.

PARISH PLAN

In last month's edition of the Acorn we reported that we had received an excellent response to the survey documents, resulting in a large pile of forms for us to process. We were expecting, as a result, that it would take longer than originally planned to analyse all the information and produce the draft report.

We can confirm that this is indeed the case! We have at least now completed entering the roughly 10,000 items of data from the survey forms into a big spreadsheet, and are just beginning the job of crunching the numbers and processing all the comments. We can therefore also confirm that the presentation of the draft Parish Plan will definitely not happen in November. If we make good progress over the next four weeks, we hope to be able to present it in December.

Check the December edition of the Acorn for further news!

This sounds very scary, but these small portable units are designed to be used safely by someone with no medical background or training. The unit delivers a sequence of voice commands and screen images guiding the user through the defibrillation process.

In the next month or two the defibrillators will be installed and ready for action, one outside the Mill Arms and one outside the Social Club. There will be a village information event soon after this, where everyone in the village will be invited to find out more and receive some first aid and defibrillator training.

Although the use of portable defibrillator unit is very straightforward, a session like this will give everyone more confidence on what to do in an emergency.

There is lots of useful information at <http://www.communityheartbeat.org.uk>, and there will be information leaflets at the Mill Arms and the Social Club.

Although we have received funding for the equipment the community needs to raise a small amount for maintenance costs each year. There are key ring torches available to buy for a small donation - ready for the winter months - which will help fund this.

Monkfish curry with jasmine rice

This recipe serves 4 people.

Ingredients:

2 tablespoons vegetable oil
6 shallots, finely sliced
3 cloves of garlic, crushed to a paste
40g finely chopped ginger
4 lemongrass stalks, tender part only, finely chopped
2-3 green chillies, seeded and finely chopped
600ml coconut milk
4 tablespoons chopped fresh coriander
600g monkfish tails cut into large chunks
200g water chestnuts
2 tablespoons Thai fish sauce
1 lime, juiced

*Kate Buchan,
Catering
Supervisor
at Kimbridge Restaurant*

For the jasmine rice:

250g jasmine rice
500ml water
1 lemongrass stalk, squashed

How to make it:

Heat the oil in a wok until it starts smoking. Then add the shallots, ginger, lemongrass and the green chillies, and cook for 2-3 minutes. Stir in the coconut milk and continue to cook for 3-4 minutes or until it starts to reduce.

Add the coriander, monkfish and water chestnuts, and continue to cook for 4-5 minutes or until the fish is cooked thoroughly. Stir in the fish sauce and lime juice, and simmer.

Put the rice and lemongrass stalk into a saucepan and cover with the water. Simmer gently for 12-15 minutes. Remove the pan from the heat and leave to stand for 5 minutes.

To serve, put a portion of the rice onto each of four plates and spoon the monkfish curry on top. Garnish with chopped coriander.

KIMBRIDGE RESTAURANT: UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT!

Kimbridge Restaurant and Annie's team room is now under the new management of an enthusiastic and exciting double act: David Ramos and Tim Arthurs.

Soon renaming it "Annie's Kitchen", the duo plan to breathe new life in to Annie's with their "simple things done brilliantly" approach to the re-modernisation of the current menu, using new fresh produce and introducing new and vibrant dishes to the menu.

Chef Kate, who has been at Annie's for 6 years, has been granted free rein to use local suppliers and source the best local produce available, to come up with exciting new ideas that offer a variety of simple classics with a modern twist that will sit perfectly with the ambiance and surroundings of the Kimbridge estate.

The duo also plan to introduce the most important traditional meal of the week with their amazing Sunday carvery. There will be a selection of meats, vegetarian and vegan options, and of course all the trimmings.

You will still be able to enjoy the timely tradition of Annie's tea room with scones and cakes that are prepared freshly on the premises by Sally, who has been baking since she was knee high to a grasshopper, all complemented with a selection of teas and coffees.

Now open from 9am, they will be offering freshly cooked to order breakfast through to lunch, and hot food served up to 5pm; evening meals will follow very soon. They promise that evenings will surprise and excite, and will be something to be enjoyed by all ages.

They will be announcing Annie's new web site and Facebook page where you will be able to join them on their new and exciting adventure.
